

Join Our Board of Directors

Cowichan Housing Association Board of Directors is looking for the right candidates to join our Board of Directors.

Why Join Our Board?

Being a member of the Cowichan Housing Association Board is rewarding, interesting, and provides an opportunity to make an important contribution to the wellbeing of many individuals and families across the Cowichan Valley. Board members bring a wide range of expertise, respect for all opinions and a spirit of collaboration to the Board meetings.

About Cowichan Housing

Since the establishment of Cowichan Housing Association in 2015, the organization has evolved into an important community hub focused on delivering high-quality programs and services that support people in our community while advocating for affordable housing, housing loss prevention, and for people who are precariously housed, unhoused, and those experiencing homelessness. While maintaining our strong foundation, we have also advanced key initiatives that will broaden our impact in the years ahead, including commencing the development of Cowichan Housings first two affordable housing projects. We are committed to doing what we can to help advance the goal of ensuring that every resident of the Cowichan Valley has access to permanent, affordable, and safe housing.

Our vision Everyone in the Cowichan Valley has access to affordable, equitable housing.

Our mission To create and facilitate affordable and equitable housing, supportive programs, and services in the Cowichan Valley.

Our values are transparency, clarity, progressive, resourceful. These shared values provide us direction for our work and help us work better together.

How to Apply

If you have experience in non-profit housing, communications/public relations, fundraising or property management, it will be considered an asset.

Cowichan Housing values diversity and inclusion and actively seeks candidates that are representative of the diverse communities we serve.
